Hayes Soloway Founding Partner Selected To Serve on University of Arizona Board of Advisors

The intellectual property firm of Hayes Soloway P.C., is pleased to announce that founding partner, Norman P. Soloway has been invited to serve on the Board of Advisors for the Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biophysics of the University of Arizona.

Mr. Soloway has practiced in the areas of patent and trademark prosecution, licensing, technology transfer and litigation for some 40 years both in Manchester, New Hampshire and Tucson, Arizona. He has filed and prosecuted patents and trademarks for large and small corporations, universities, start-up businesses and individuals. He uniquely combines extensive legal experience with an entrepreneurial business orientation; he has established two technology based companies and is currently a director of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Enterprise Forum.

Hayes Soloway, P.C., an intellectual property boutique, has offices located in Tucson, Arizona and Manchester, New Hampshire. Their attorneys have strong engineering and scientific backgrounds and the firm serves a diverse domestic and international client base that includes industry leaders in aerospace, biotechnology, pharmaceuticals, chemical technologies, mechanical and electromechanical technologies and microelectronics.

The Arizona office is located at 130 W. Cushing Street, Tucson, Arizona 85701, telephone: 520-882-7623 and their New Hampshire address is: 176 Canal Street, Manchester, New Hampshire 03101, telephone: 603-668-1400.
